QUEER FRUITS FILM FESTIVAL
2010 Queer Fruits Film Festival - General Entry Guidelines

No films with racist, sexist, GLBTIQphobic, or offensive themes will be accepted for entry under any circumstances. If unclear, please contact the Festival Director.

It is desirable that at least one of the key creatives be a queer filmmaker (that is either the Writer, Director or Producer). If other personnel on the film are from within the GLBTIQ community, but not the key creatives, please outline which personnel meet the entry criteria. If no production personnel are from within the GLBTIQ community but the film is of high merit and interest to a Queer Film Festival audience please contact the Festival Director to discuss the film prior to entry into the Festival.

Selection will be made by an industry/GLBTIQ panel and all decisions are final.

Entrants must forward a high quality preview DVD in PAL format (Region 4 (Australia); Region 0 (Worldwide); or Region All).

NTSC preview DVD's are also able to be accepted - however the film must be able to be provided as a PAL exhibition copy in digibeta or mini DV format. Contact the festival if there are any questions about exhibition formats (particularly animations).

Please contact the festival if you are unable to provide preview items in the required formats.

QFFF
P.O. Box 2101
Byron Bay
NSW 2481
Australia

Preview DVD's will not be returned unless accompanied by a prepaid satchel/international reply coupons to cover return postage.

Exhibition copy tapes will be returned at the expense of the festival in January 2011 to all Selected filmmakers.

Filmmakers will be notified of selection status by the end of September 2010.

Selected films will need to forward publicity stills (j.pegs) for promotional use by the Festival. The exhibition copy will be required at the festival office by September 30th, 2010 at the latest (in formats digi-beta, mini-DV, or for animations only - QT data file - contact the festival for codec to enable compilation of the screening program).

In 2010, Selected filmmakers will have the option of providing a 15-30 second high-quality QT of a portion of their film for use in a promotional trailer.

2010 Queer Fruits Film Festival - General Entry Rules

IMPORTANT NOTE TO ALL FILMMAKERS :

- Northern Rivers' regional premiere status is the minimum entry requirement.
- Please ensure that the correct Premiere status of your film is listed on this form (or on the WAB entry) under 'screenings'. Please accurately list any screenings that have occurred - or are pending as at December 29th, 2010 and update this if new screenings take place after you enter. This is to ensure that programs are accurate.

The festival is seeking films that are innovative, entertaining, intelligent and celebratory - films which exude charisma.

- All entrants are requested to add the festival email address :
info@queerfruitsfilmfestival.org
to their address books upon entry, to avoid any festival correspondence mistakenly going to spam or junk can.
- All entrants are also requested to provide an alternate email/phone contact (not just one per entry).
- Awards will be presented in all film categories, with a Local Filmmaker Incentive Award (open to Northern Rivers' region filmmakers) and an overall Jury Prize judged by an industry panel will be awarded to the film which best exemplifies innovation, celebration and pride in queer culture.

The 2009 Winner of the Jury Prize was the fabulous Waxie Moon (USA, 2009) Directed by Wes Hurley.
